

Influence of Feng Tsui in Modern Singapore

Adult: $148 per person

Explore Singapore from a Feng-Shui perspective and learn how it is an integral part in the design and construction at many of our country's historic and modern landmarks.

We would be driving through Suntec City Mall area, here we would see and understand the design how the feng Tsui Master and the architect worked together to create the harmony and the flow of the water from the fountain.

Our next stop would be at the Marina Bay Sands Integrated Resort where we learn about the influence of feng Tsui element in the design. We board our River Cruise boat and from here, we take a look at the Merlion, design of the UOB Center and OCBC to understand how the structure of these 2 renowned skyscrapers is not just aesthetic but also auspicious.

Lunch would be at a well known Chinese Restaurant where Feng Tsui dishes has been selected for your dining.

On this tour we will learn about this ancient philosophy also known as geomancy (Feng Shui), creating harmony and balance to promote well-being. Drive down bustling Orchard Road, Asia's most famous shopping street, learning about the feng shui related buildings and how they are constructed to ensure prosperity and good fortune. We would be stopping to see the front doors of the Grand Hyatt, the driving down Orchard Road passing by Ngee Ann City and the Paragon.
